GRAPHIC NOTES AND COMMENT ON THE VARIED NEWS OF THE DAY AS RECORDED BY THE CAMERA

THE GARLAND GIRLS IN MAY DAY FETE AT HAMMONTON, N. J.

Hammonton made special efforts this year to make its May Day a thing of beauty and amply succeeded, spectators coming from neighboring towns and from miles around to attend.

AT LAST NIGHT'S BALL AT THE ACADEMY OF THE FINE ARTS Miss Stephanie Balderston as the Spirit of the Rose and Carleton Furbush as a Blackamoor.

ADMONISHING THE PHOTOGRAPHER She warned the Evening Ledger camera man, but got her picture taken anyhow, boots and all.

FIGHTING GROWS HOTTER ON THE PLAINS SOUTH OF THE TYROL Here we see the first men over the top of the trenches with rifles poised for a charge on the Austrians. The battles east of the Adige are becoming among the biggest of the war.

GRANEY STEALS HOME FOR THE CLEVELANDS A spectacular incident in yesterday's game with the Athletics when two were out. Bush's low pitch got away from Meyer, enabling the wily Clevelander to score.

MISS LOUISE R. GIFFORD Dancer who is helping to train the children of the Southwark Neighborhood House for the fete in Germantown on June 3.

SOME OF THE 30,000 WOMEN AT THE NEW YORK CONVENTION OF THE WOMEN'S FEDERATED CLUBS These are members of the Shakespearean Committee who are preparing for the convention's commemoration program in honor of the tercentenary of the Bard of Avon.

MISS HELEN CRAMP She also is helping to train the little folks of the Southwark Neighborhood House for the pageant.
